

MR. Y. YAMASAKI'S STORE, BROOME.

Mr. Yamasaki, of Broome, undoubtedly carries the finest stock of Japanese goods in Australia. His store is quite a museum of curios and fancy goods, comprising Satsuma and Cloisonne ware, bronze, brass, antimony, carved ivory and bone ornaments, silks and embroidery, kimono, bed covers, table covers, lacquer ware, carved pearl shells and various articles of shell, afternoon tea sets at all prices, fans, hand-painted photo. and postcard albums, Japanese post cards, screens, bamboo ware, and other articles too numerous to mention.

Mr Yamasaki of Broome undoubtedly carries the finest stock of Japanese goods in Australia. His store is quite a museum of curios and fancy goods comprising Satsuma and Cloisonne ware, bronze, brass, antimony, carved ivory & bone ornaments, silks and embroidery, kimonos, bed covers, table covers, lacquer ware, carved pearl shells & various articles of shell. Afternoon tea at sets at all prices, fans, hand painted photos and post card albums, Japanese post cards, screens, bamboo ware and other articles too numerous to mention.

Courtesy Battye Library

1549

Western Mail 20.11.1909